

Which person is involved with palliative care?

They all are!

And that's where you come in . . .

People feel supported when family, friends, neighbours and work-mates know what to do, how to care and what to say.

Caring for community members = Everyone's responsibility!

Palliative care teams across North East Victoria look forward to sharing the care with you www.smrpalliativecare-consortium.org.au

Supported by Victorian Department of Human Services