

Changes to the Victorian Law on Consent

Medical Treatment Planning and Decision Act

Implementation date: March 2018

Are YOU ready?

The law on consent for medical treatment will be changed significantly on the 12th of March 2018. This has implication for a wide range of health providers, including allied health, pharmacy, dentistry, etc.

It is your responsibility as a provider of health services to know about these changes and prepare for them.

Facilitated by: Claire McNamara, Office of the Public Advocate

This workshop will cover:

- What are the changes to the law?
- Who does it apply to?
- What does your service have to do to be ready?
- What are the consequences of not adhering to the new law?

This workshop is specifically for:

- ❖ Palliative Care Services
- ❖ General Practice
- ❖ Aged Care
- ❖ Community Health

WHEN: Tuesday 5 December 2017

WHERE: Sandy by the Bay
Beach Rd, Sandringham VIC 3191

TIME: 10:00pm 12:00pm (Registration from 9:30am)

Registration essential ... CLICK HERE!

Note: There will be another workshop during the afternoon that you may also be interested in attending. Abnormal mental states and palliative care will be facilitated by Dr Diane Clifton. CLICK HERE! for further details.